

۱-noradrenaline is stored in subcellular granules ----- by a membrane.

- a. released b. enveloped c. separated d. triggered

۲. Blockage of the receptors can lead either to inhibition or ----- of transmitter release.

- a. deprivation b. fusion c. distribution d. facilitation

۳. Obesity-----and aggravates many of the major diseases of affluent societies .

- a. correspond to b. confine c. intervene in d. contribute to

۴. Phocomelia is a ----- deformity in which the long bone of the limbs is defective.

- a. congenital b. rudimentary c. casual d. trivial

۵. Inquiries provided evidence-incriminating thalidomide.

- a. supporting b. accusing c. rejecting d. recommending

۶. The chief ----- of Thalidomide was that the overdose did not cause coma.

- a. relief b. estimate c. merit d. context

۷. The nocturnal seizure ----- the neurological consultation.

- a. brought up b. was caused by c. resulted from d. led to

٨. Inquiries into family history ----- no history of similar skin disorders.

- a. furnished b. persisted c. yielded d. erupted

٩. Skull radiographs revealed several areas of increased density in the upper part of the parietal bones.

- a. involved b. observed c. showed d. recognized

١٠. Intracranial space is a space ----- the skull.

- a. between b. behind c. within d. besides

١١. ----- is a disease characterized by areas of focal loss of myelin in the central nervous system.

- a. Multiple sclerosis b. Epiloia c. Adenoma sebaceum d. Epilepsy

١٢. The involuntary rapid movement of the eyeball is called.-----

- a. ataxia b. nystagmus c. impotence d. titubation

١٣. Imperfect articulation of the speech is named.-----

- a. vertigo b. euphoria c. dysarthria d. diplopia

١٤. The suffix "itis" as in "neuritis" means.-----

- a. inflammation b. dilation c. contraction d. atrophy

١٥. The presence of a greater than normal number of cells in cerebrospinal fluid is referred to as----

- a. Leukemia b. scotoma c. paraparesis d. pleocytosis

١٦. Having so many ----- at the moment, he ignores his family completely.

- a. manifestations b. preoccupations c. exposures d. incidents

١٧. A sensory perception that does not result from an external stimulus is called.-----

- a. delusion b. retardation c. agitation d. hallucination

١٨. Pollen is a (n) -----, causing red and sore eyes in sensitive people.

- a. inhabitant b. irritant c. distraction d. despair

١٩. Violence is an ever-present hazard of working with the mentally ill, especially in hospitals.

- a. danger b. property c. characteristic d. injury

۲۰. The ----- of the wounds usually cause fever.

a. palpitation

b. suppression

c. suppuration

d. profusion

فول تست fultest.ir